Greetings,

Thank you for your interest in the Hoffman Process. To assist you in your exploration of our programs, we have included some materials for your information and review: the dates and locations of our Processes for the next six to eight months; how to join us for our weekly intro call; the Hoffman Institute's Creative Force brochure; A Path to Personal Freedom and Love, an essay by Bob Hoffman, founder of the Hoffman Process; and an article written by the chair of our Advisory Council.

In addition to the above material, we recommend that you do the following:

- Visit our website at hoffmaninstitute.org to learn more about the Process, the latest research results, and our curriculum.
- At your convenience, call our office for an individual question-and-answer session with a member of our enrollment team. Or, you can also participate in a free, 45-minute live Intro Call with a Hoffman Process teacher. Calls are most Tuesdays at 5 PM Pacific.

The number to call is 866-705-2554; Conference Code 694467#.

- Enroll in a Process that suits your scheduling and geographic needs by phone, mail, or our online registration at www.hoffmaninstitute.org/dates.

We offer a tiered pricing structure designed to expand access and invite ongoing support of our work. The Sustainer Rate for the Hoffman Process is $6,950 USD, which includes tuition, lodging, food, and materials. Additional pricing includes a Sponsor Rate of $9,950, which includes a U.S. tax-deductible donation for those who are able to support inclusive access; and a Supported Rate, which is supported by donations and allows us to offer inclusive access to our programs.

Please call us at 800-506-5253, or take a look at our website for more information: hoffmaninstitute.org/the-process.

To reserve your space, a $700 USD non-refundable, non-transferable deposit is required. We accept Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express, as well as personal checks. Upon registering, you will be able to access detailed enrollment forms, the pre-Process work, and directions to the Process site.

If we can assist you in any way, please call us at 800-506-5253.

Warm regards,

Matt Brannagan
